

Ward	Description	Family use only (Y/N)	Photo attached (Y/N)
Cherrywood, Amberwood & Pinewood	The Visit room is off the ward, window and door handles. Board with career information on for careers, games set up for children	N	Y
Willow Suite (PICU)	The Visit room is off the ward, window and door handles. Board with career information on for careers, games set up for children	N	Y
Jasmine Ward (Darent Valley Hospital)	The quiet room is allocated and visitors are escorted to this room. Visitors do not pass through patient areas.	Y	N
Chartwell, Boughton, Upnor & ECT Suite (Priority House):	The younger adult family room is the lounge of the ECT suite and is a pleasant and recently updated space with a TV, kitchen and comfortable chairs.	Y	Y
Orchards (Priority House):	The older adults have a room specifically for families to visit. It is a room away from the ward which is furnished with comfortable fittings	Y	Y
Heather Ward (St Martin's Hospital)	The family room has three chairs, sofa, small table, window, an information board on the wall and a fan.	N	Y
Woodchurch (Thanet Mental Health Unit)	There is no designated room, the ward have access to a large meeting room that is off the ward.	N	N
The Trevor Gibbens Unit	The main family visiting room is located within the secure perimeter behind the main Reception. The room currently contains a lockable sideboard, seating and storage boxes for children's toy's / activities, curtains and clock	N	Y
Walmer ward (Trebor Gibbons Unit)	An on-ward visiting room for family visits (this is located within their locked reception area and outside of the main ward). This room contains seating, a side table and some artwork and information.	N	Y
The Allington Centre, The Tarentfort Centre & The Brookfield Centre	Each ward has their own on-ward visiting room that can be accessed without entering the ward itself. These rooms contain seating, side tables, sideboards, TVs, Lifesize facilities, noticeboards and information.	N	N